FROM THE SVVA PRESIDENT

Welcome to the 39th year of the Silicon Valley Open Studios.

We are excited to host this year's event for 340 artists at over 100 locations from Pacifica and South San Francisco to San Jose during the first three weekends of May.

Silicon Valley Open Studios is organized and presented by Silicon Valley Visual Arts (svva.org), a nonprofit, volunteer-run organization providing education, exhibitions, and promotion for Bay Area artists. With this year's additional emphasis on community outreach, we anticipate an increased number of visitors who can take advantage of meeting our talented local artists. Artwork sales go to the artists directly – Silicon Valley Visual Arts does not take a commission.

Please visit svos.org for additional information about the participating artists. Get a preview of their art in the online gallery. You can use the search tools to find the type of art that interests you and take advantage of the interactive map to help you plan your visits throughout the area.

Thank you to our many volunteers, sponsors, and thousands of visitors and patrons who help support our artists and make Silicon Valley Open Studios possible. We look forward to seeing you this May.

Keep a lookout for the yellow Silicon Valley Open Studio signs!

Linda Nystrom, President
Silicon Valley Visual Arts

WE NEED YOUR SUPPORT

SVVA is a 501(c)3 volunteer-based organization, so we need both financial and volunteer support to help grow, produce and manage the opportunities we bring to artists through Open Studios, artist education and exhibition opportunities.

You are invited to be part of an organization that supports the arts and artists in the San Francisco Bay Area.
